Koinonia (Coin-O-Nee-Uh) means "a gathering". The Koinonia weekend is just that; it brings together people from different communities for a learning, sharing, inspirational experience in Christian living. The first weekend was held in the spring of 1972 and is patterned after the Catholic Cursillo. Although the weekend is modified slightly from the Cursillo weekend, the basic theme exists: "a short course in Christian Living." A Koinonia weekend is for everyone who is interested in participation in the Christian life and the world around them. The weekend is many things, to many people, but most of all it is an experience to be lived. The weekend is one filled with joy, sharing of concerns, informal conversations, singing, and laughter. Within the forty-four hours of the weekend, complete strangers become a true Christian Community.

What happens on a Koinonia Weekend?

The weekend is structured around a series of talks. The talks cover such topics as God's grace, study, action, and other relevant topics. There is time after each talk for discussion within a small group. The talks stimulate discussions and provide for living beyond the weekend.

Who attends Koinonia weekends?

All people regardless of race, gender, or ethnic heritage, who are interested in participating in life and the world around them. Single and married persons are welcome to attend. Separate indoor men's and women's sleeping quarters are provided.

What is the age limit?

Anyone eighteen years of age or older may attend.

Where are the Koinonia weekends held?

Northern Colorado Koinonia weekends are held at Sky Corral Ranch in Bellvue, Colorado. A map and instructions on how to get there will be sent to you about one week before the weekend.

What does a Koinonia weekend cost?

A non-refundable deposit of $90.00 must accompany this application or can be paid through PayPal on <http://nckoinonia.org> for a $5.00 fee ($95.00). Bring the balance with you when you come to the weekend. If you have financial concerns, please contact the participant coordinator.
