Spring 2023

Open Board Positions

It is that time of year! The continuance board is looking for members wanting to make a difference and help run the inner workings of Northern Colorado Koinonia!

If you feel called to do more for our wonderful family and retreat weekends, then this is for you!

Our Board positions that are currently open are as follows:

Secretary: Records votes and keeps the minutes of all meetings, sends notes to board to be voted upon and makes all corrections within 2 weeks after board meeting, etc...

Treasurer: Maintains proper books of accounts, prepares annual budget and statements of income for board meetings, deposit monies into appropriate bank accounts, works with site coordinator for payments of camp retreats.

Site Coordinator: Primary camp liaison, review and verify the contract and reservations are correct and paid promptly, makes reservations with camp for weekends and meal counts, confirms camp is ready for weekend, any other contact needed with the camp.

Membership Coordinator: Maintains names of all interested in being on team, data base recording all attendees of prior weekends and positions, Updates Koinonia directory.

Spiritual Director: Provides spiritual direction to the Board and the Koinonia Community.

Music Coordinator: keeps CCLI up to date, keeps list of music as needed, reports music to agency, works with Head Musician of weekends, etc...
